Cyprus holding companies

Situated in the Eastern Mediterranean, Cyprus has been an EU member since 2004. International investors are increasingly using Holding Companies incorporated in Cyprus as part of their strategic tax planning when investing in the EU and other Double Tax Treaty (DTT) and non DTT jurisdictions. The main features of the Cypriot tax regime which make

Holding Company structures tax beneficial are outlined below:

- The ability to utilize the Parent Subsidiary Directive or the wide DTT network enables the Cyprus Holding company, to extract
- Dividends from its Subsidiaries, at low or zero foreign withholding tax
- Dividends receivable by the Cyprus Holding company are exempt from corporate taxation
- Dividends receivable by the Cyprus Holding company are subject to special contribution tax, ONLY IF the Subsidiary company engages directly or indirectly, by more than 50% in investment income AND the foreign tax on the income of the Subsidiary is lower than 7,5%
- The Cyprus Holding company can effect Dividend distributions without any withholding taxes, unless payment is made to a black listed or low tax jurisdiction
- The Cyprus Holding company can dispose the shares of its subsidiaries without any taxes on gains on disposals, irrespective of percentage holding or period of holding the subsidiary (Unless the subsidiary holds immovable property in Cyprus)
- There are no capital gains on the liquidation of the Cyprus Holding Company or capital gains taxes on the disposal of the Cyprus Holding Company shares
